

Once the sun goes down enjoy the city lights!

What a package, rural property with city views... this 2.05ha property is unique in many ways. Only 7km from the CBD on a sealed road frontage that overlooks the city of Moe/Newborough and beyond.

From the road, you wouldn't realise the property is there which ensures the privacy of out of town living. The sealed driveway which leads directly to the home has well established gardens on either side.

You can enter the home direct from the carport or via the front door, either way once you have entered you will feel the wow factor.

The kitchen draws you immediately to the window that over looks the valley, you will want to wash the dishes all day just to take in the view. The practical country style kitchen is well fitted out with ample bench and storage space.

The open plan dining and lounge area is a stunning living space with the cathedral ceilings and the solid brick fireplace, a great space to dine or relax in.

The second living area is a cosy nook off the master bedroom, ideal to hide from the rest of the family to enjoy reading a book, watching a bit of television or just enjoying the solitude and the view.

The master bedroom has built in robes and an ensuite, the other 2 bedrooms also have built in robes.

You'll find a solid fuel heater built into the stunning fire place and also two new split systems to heat or cool the home.
