

What a great place to start!

This extremely popular location could be the start of your property portfolio or the place you could put your stamp on and call home.

The 3 bedroom home is on a 761 m2 allotment and provides a great foundation for those looking for a property with close proximity to the CBD. It is an easy walk from the shopping centre, schools, sporting facilities & medical facilities.

The home features gas heating, split system, electric cooking, 2 free standing robes, polished floor boards to the bedrooms, kitchen and family rooms combined, spacious lounge, timber architraves and doors plus some decorative feature cornices. The home is sound and solid and would make a great start for those wanting to get into the property market.

Other features include a double garage with a workshop, secure yard with ample room for the pets & kids.

This home is well worth a look, located on Moe's North Side with a rural aspect to rear of the home.
