Affordable Entry into the Property Market

Restoring an older home is a wise investment, an older home that can be reworked into a liveable, unique space that maintains and adds to its value, is surely worth taking the time to inspect.

With home prices still heading upwards at a fast pace this home will give you an affordable entry into the property market that is becoming harder by the day.

This two-bedroom Hardiplank home would be an ideal first home buyers or for those who have the vision to transform this property into a comfortable home.

Features include, dine in kitchen, gas cooking, bathroom/ wet room suitable for those with a disability easy wheelchair access, a 2nd toilet is located at the rear of the home. A cosy lounge area with split system & ceiling fan, a 2nd split system in the master bedroom as well as a ceiling fan.

Additional features of this property include a 6m x 4m fully lined bungalow perfect for a teenager or games room, carport, solar panels, covered back verandah area, 677m2 allotment.

Ideal location close to a corner store/take away/mini mart, short stroll to the local pool, soccer ground and not too far from the CBD.
