

Make Me New Again

2 1 1 595m2

This could be the start you are looking for, with solid bones this property will give you the opportunity to improve one room at a time. Nestled on an approximate 595m2 flat allotment the home has ample room to extend should you wish to do so.

This two bedroom hardiplank home has a split system, gas heating, electric cooking and the kitchen and lounge room are of a generous size.

The back yard is a blank canvas apart from a lock up garage. There is an ideal area to create a vegetable garden for sustainable living. The location is convenient with a primary school just across the road, a short walk to the pharmacy and supermarket and easy access to the town bus service.

Built in the 60's and having stood the test of time, with a little love and attention it will be standing for a long time to come.
