13 Anzac Rd, Trafalgar

A Touch of Nostalgia

This family home offers both practicality and charm for comfortable living, being conveniently located on one of Trafalgar's most desirable tree-lined streets, within easy walking distance to the education precinct (kinder, primary and secondary), multiple parks, shops and eateries.

Brimming with authenticity, you'll be wowed by the fancy cornices and freshly polished floor boards. The tasteful new Allure kitchen features stunning glass tile splashback, double black Frankie sink, stone bench tops, island bench with power pod, new gas cook top, new electric oven, pantry & dishwasher, and showcases the original brickwork arch where a woodfire oven once sat.

Large traditional steel frame windows let the light stream in and additional warmth comes via gas central, and an additional electric fireplace in the dining area.

3 comfortable bedrooms having Axminster wool carpets and are all inclusive of built-in robes.

A 2nd living room allows the family extra space and features polished concrete flooring, a large split system and a sliding door that opens out into the outdoor undercover patio, perfect for indoor/outdoor entertaining.

The rear yard is fully secure and private with enough room for the kids and pets. There's also a single garage with attached carport and a workshop at the rear perfect for tinkering on projects. This beautiful traditional home fits in perfectly to the iconic Anzac Road.
