Impressive To Say The Least

If you've been looking for a super neat, well maintained home then look no further!

From the moment you step inside you can appreciate a touch of class and functionality as well as the continuous flow of the interior space.

This well laid out floor plan has managed to utilise maximum space in a smaller footprint that will cater for every buyer in the market place, ideal for downsizing, starting out or investing.

The open plan living starts at the front door and flows through to the lounge, sitting, dining area to a well-designed kitchen which offers a touch of class with generous storage & bench area, an island bar for the casual diner as well as electric cooking appliances and a dishwasher.

The Main bedroom features a walk in robe, ensuite, and a petitioned off area suitable as a reading/study/nursery space.

The 2nd bedroom has built in robes, carpet, blinds and curtains and has direct access to the main bathroom.

All bedrooms have new carpet and window furnishings, the living area has timber flooring throughout. Other features include; gas central heating, evaporative cooling, ceiling fans and solar panels.

Workshop/shed with concrete floor, power, toilet and wash trough as well as an additional garden shed, fenced off garden area & great play space for the kids or dogs.
