15 Hayes Rd, Newborough

Charm & Comfortability in Newborough !

Well presented & looked after sits this versatile family home boasting all the mod cons with recent updates of the interior. There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms, with the master bedroom having its own ensuite. The extra-large open plan dining/living area features a s/system & slow combustion heater with sliding doors that open to a decked undercover verandah/alfresco area with pull down blinds making this the ideal area for bbq's & family gatherings. A modern kitchen includes electric cooking, double sink and plenty of cupboard storage. Outside there is a solar system, electric HWS, double garage with double carport, a hothouse, a chook pen and on the Northern side of the home beautiful established gardens for you to admire. The abundance of features can only be appreciated by inspecting the property. All town services are available, town water & sewerage system (apart from gas) and having a bitumen road frontage is a real bonus.

There is also an option to agist at the premises at an extra cost

Please note there is an existing commercial business which is operated directly at the rear of the premises & they have sole use of the driveway next to the car port
