SOLD

4 2 3 80.00ac

Take in the breathtaking views over Russell Creek and spectacular landscapes surrounding this four bedroom brick homestead sited on 80 Acres (app) of predominantly cleared pasture with some light bushland. The property is currently being fitted with new fencing to the five paddocks. With slightly undulating to hilly areas, and Russell's creek quietly trickling through the property providing a natural habitat for wombats, kangaroos, and bird life this is a quiet oasis away from the world. Large hayshed/machinery shed, three large concrete water tanks, stock yard, loading ramp and dam. The comfortable brick home has four bedrooms or three bedrooms and a large office, open lounge and dining room, wood heating plus air-conditioner. Two bathrooms, large laundry, kitchen with electric cooking overlooking the beautiful uninterrupted views, extra large double garage with direct under roof line access plus a carport. Solar power back to grid.

This property is located in rural surrounds, only a short 30 minute drive from the regional towns of Moe and Trafalgar. Nestled near the small rural community of Hill End and Willow Grove with schooling, sporting facilities and a general store, and Blue Rock Lake. The perfect property for the growing family or retiree.
