160 Loch Street, Yarragon

Perfect Rural Home on Town Fringe

This 10 acre farm-let has everything you could ever want. The beautifully presented house has four bedrooms. Three have built in robes and the large master has built ins plus a spacious ensuite. The main bathroom has a corner bath and separate shower. There is plenty of space to entertain in the country kitchen that has an electric oven, gas hotplates and dishwasher and is adjoined by either a dining room or family room and complete with it's own split system. The lounge is bright and inviting with large windows and a separate area that can be used as either a bar or formal dining. A second split system is located in the lounge for your comfort. Enjoy the benefits of mains gas and water, plus a water tank that services the gardens. Central gas heating, central ducted vacuum system and electric hot water. Ample power points throughout and ceiling fans are all additional benefits. Moving outside you will find a three bay shed with concrete flooring, power and extra height clearance. There is a chook pen, dog run and extra shedding located at the rear of the house. The 10 acres is ideal for horses or to run a few head of stock. The cattle yards are ideally located directly off the main road for easy access. All of this within walking distance to the main township, schools, kindergarten and shops. Don't miss out.
