

53 School Road, Trafalgar

Welcoming Country Home

Located on a corner block with a sweeping driveway and pretty gardens this country feeling home is just what you need. Three bedrooms with built in robes, original bathroom, hardwood floors, central gas heating and evaporative cooling, french doors, french doors and detailed cornices, and a large light filled lounge has double french doors that open out to the garden. The double access driveway allows you to pull right up to the front door under a single carport and leave again without the need to reverse. All of this is just a short stroll to the schools, parks and CBD. Private inspections are welcome.
