6 Church St, Trafalgar

Central to everything and on a corner block

There is no need for a car when everything is within a short walking distance. This three bedroom home is located on the corner of Church and Wellington Streets and is central to the CBD, community garden, schools, churches, sporting facilities, public transport and public hall. Inside the home you will find three bedrooms of which two have built in robes, spacious bathroom, the laundry has an additional shower and toilet, rear sun room with ample storage, gas cooking in the kitchen, large lounge room that adjoins an equally spacious dining room, split system and gas heater. Outside there is an undercover area, single carport and driveway access from Wellington Street. This property has been a much loved family home and now needs a new family to give it a well worth renovation. Private inspections are welcome.
