Be Very Impressed

It's not as it appears from the front but once you step inside you will be very impressed. Pass through the spacious entry and either turn into the children's retreat area or continue on to the main open plan living area. The children's retreat features three bedrooms with built in robes, carpeted floors, family room, main bathroom and separate powder room. The main open plan living area features a large spacious kitchen, lounge and dining area with bi-folding doors that open to the outdoor entertainment area. The kitchen features an extra large walk in pantry, dishwasher and 900mm stainless steel gas oven. You have all of this plus an additional private carpeted theatre room. The master bedroom has it's own access to the outside entertainment area, large built in robe and roomy ensuite. The home features central gas heating plus split system for cooling, the extra high ceilings give it a luxurious feeling, internal plantation shutters, double garage under main roof and a separate double garage at the rear with access through gates, hot house, garden shed and low maintenance gardens. You will want this home as soon as you walk in the door. Private inspections welcomed.
