34 Cross St, Trafalgar

Pure Elegance

Time and care has been taken to restore and renovate this beautiful property. As you open the double front door you are greeted with polished floorboards that continue throughout the home, ceiling roses in pristine condition and detailed cornices that bring it back to life. Central gas heating to keep you warm in winter and ceiling fans combined with the insulation will keep you cool in summer. Freshly painted throughout, this home features a master bedroom with built in robe and a built in wall unit in another. Complete new kitchen with bamboo bench tops, Falcon gas oven, ample cupboards, brand new white goods included, European laundry with new washer and dryer in one hidden beneath the bench tops is located at the far end of the kitchen. Several built in cupboards with original features solves all of your storage needs. Make it your choice to set the home up as three bedrooms plus a study with one living, or three bedrooms and two living areas, or two bedrooms and a study and two living areas. Outside you will find an undercover entertainment area, raised garden beds, potting shed, double garage and carport. Very neat and tidy property, walking distance to schools and in a sought after area close to all Trafalgar has to offer. Private inspections are welcomed.
